

Palau

Continent: Australia

Languages Spoken: Palauan, English, Sonsorolese, Tobian

Population: 18,000

Currency: United States Dollar (USD)

Area: 459

Main Landmarks:

- {'name': 'Rock Islands', 'writeup': 'A group of limestone islands known for their unique mushroom-like shapes and rich marine biodiversity.'}
- {'name': 'Jellyfish Lake', 'writeup': 'A marine lake famous for its millions of harmless golden jellyfish, popular for snorkeling.'}
- {'name': 'Babeldaob Island', 'writeup': 'The largest island in Palau, featuring lush forests, waterfalls, and ancient stone monoliths.'}

Head of State / Government:

Surangel Whipps Jr. (President)

Main Cultural Events:

- {'name': 'Ngasech Traditional Festival', 'writeup': 'An annual event celebrating Palauan culture with traditional dances, music, and crafts.'}
- {'name': 'Palau Day', 'writeup': 'A national holiday commemorating Palau's independence with parades and cultural performances.'}

Food & Cuisine:

Palauan cuisine features seafood, taro, coconut, and tropical fruits, often prepared with traditional methods like grilling and boiling.

Brief History:

Palau was settled around 3,000 years ago. It was colonized by Spain, Germany, and Japan before becoming a U.S. trust territory after World War II. Palau gained full sovereignty in 1994.

Important People:

- Surangel Whipps Jr. - Current President
- Thomas Remengesau Jr. - Former President and influential political leader
- Haruo Remeliik - First President of Palau

Current Conflicts:

Palau maintains peaceful relations internationally with no significant current conflicts.

Youtube Links:

- Discover Palau: The Jewel of Micronesia

- Jellyfish Lake Snorkeling Experience in Palau
- Top 10 Things to Do in Palau
- Palau Travel Guide 2023
- The Unique Culture and History of Palau