

Zambia

Continent: Africa

Languages Spoken: English, Bemba, Nyanja, Tonga, Lozi, Chewa

Population: 19,000,000

Currency: Zambian kwacha (ZMW)

Area: 752,618

Main Landmarks:

- {'name': 'Victoria Falls', 'writeup': 'One of the largest and most famous waterfalls in the world, located on the Zambezi River at the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe.'}
- {'name': 'South Luangwa National Park', 'writeup': 'A renowned wildlife sanctuary known for its walking safaris and diverse animal populations including elephants, lions, and hippos.'}
- {'name': 'Lower Zambezi National Park', 'writeup': 'A protected area along the Zambezi River offering opportunities for canoeing, fishing, and wildlife viewing.'}
- {'name': 'Kafue National Park', 'writeup': 'One of Africa's largest national parks, home to a wide variety of wildlife and diverse ecosystems.'}

Head of State / Government:

President Hakainde Hichilema

Main Cultural Events:

- {'name': 'Kuomboka Ceremony', 'writeup': 'An annual traditional ceremony of the Lozi people marking the movement of the king from the flooded plains to higher ground.'}
- {'name': 'Nc'wala Ceremony', 'writeup': 'A celebration by the Ngoni people to mark the first fruits harvest and honor their ancestors.'}

Food & Cuisine:

Zambian cuisine features staple foods such as nshima (a maize-based porridge), often served with vegetables, beans, and meats like fish or beef. Traditional dishes emphasize locally sourced ingredients and communal eating.

Brief History:

Zambia gained independence from British colonial rule in 1964. It was formerly known as Northern Rhodesia. The country has a history of copper mining and has experienced periods of economic growth and challenges since independence.

Important People:

- Kenneth Kaunda - First President of Zambia and independence leader
- Levy Mwanawasa - Former President known for anti-corruption efforts
- Michael Sata - Former President noted for populist policies
- Hakainde Hichilema - Current President and businessman

Current Conflicts:

Zambia is generally stable with no major internal or external conflicts, though it faces challenges related to economic development and regional security issues.

Youtube Links:

- Discover Zambia: Victoria Falls and Wildlife Safari
- Zambia Travel Guide - Top Places to Visit
- Cultural Festivals of Zambia: Kuomboka and Nc'wala
- Zambian Cuisine: Traditional Foods and Cooking
- History and Politics of Zambia Explained