

Bangladesh

Continent: Asia

Languages Spoken: Bengali (official), English (widely used)

Population: 170,000,000

Currency: Bangladeshi Taka (BDT)

Area: 147,570

Main Landmarks:

- {'name': 'Sundarbans', 'writeup': 'The largest mangrove forest in the world, home to the Bengal tiger and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.'}
- {'name': 'Lalbagh Fort', 'writeup': 'A 17th-century Mughal fort complex in Dhaka, known for its beautiful architecture and historical significance.'}
- {'name': 'Ahsan Manzil', 'writeup': 'The Pink Palace in Dhaka, once the official residential palace of the Nawab of Dhaka.'}
- {'name': 'Jatiyo Sangsad Bhaban', 'writeup': 'The National Parliament House, an architectural masterpiece designed by Louis Kahn.'}
- {'name': 'Cox's Bazar', 'writeup': 'The world's longest natural sea beach, a popular tourist destination.'}

Head of State / Government:

President Mohammad Shahabuddin

Main Cultural Events:

- {'name': 'Pohela Boishakh', 'writeup': 'Bengali New Year celebrated with colorful processions, traditional music, and fairs.'}
- {'name': 'Eid-ul-Fitr', 'writeup': 'A major Islamic festival marking the end of Ramadan, celebrated with prayers, feasts, and charity.'}
- {'name': 'Durga Puja', 'writeup': 'A Hindu festival honoring the goddess Durga, featuring elaborate rituals and cultural programs.'}
- {'name': 'Bishwa Ijtema', 'writeup': 'One of the largest Islamic congregations in the world, held annually near Dhaka.'}

Food & Cuisine:

Bangladeshi cuisine is rich in flavors, featuring rice and fish as staples. Popular dishes include Hilsa fish curry, Bhuna Khichuri, and sweets like Rasgulla and Sandesh.

Brief History:

Bangladesh emerged as an independent country in 1971 after the Liberation War against Pakistan. It has a rich cultural heritage influenced by ancient Bengal, Mughal rule, and British colonialism.

Important People:

- Sheikh Mujibur Rahman - Founding leader and first President of Bangladesh
- Kazi Nazrul Islam - National poet known for his revolutionary works

- Rabindranath Tagore - Nobel laureate poet and cultural icon
- Sheikh Hasina - Current Prime Minister
- Muhammad Yunus - Nobel Peace Prize laureate and pioneer of microfinance

Current Conflicts:

Bangladesh faces challenges related to political tensions, border disputes with Myanmar, and issues surrounding the Rohingya refugee crisis.

Youtube Links:

- Discover Bangladesh: Land of Rivers and Culture
- Bangladesh Travel Guide | Top Places to Visit
- History of Bangladesh | From Liberation to Present
- Bangladeshi Cuisine: Traditional Foods You Must Try
- The Sundarbans: Home of the Bengal Tiger