

Singapore

Continent: Asia

Languages Spoken: English, Mandarin, Malay, Tamil

Population: 5,900,000

Currency: Singapore Dollar (SGD)

Area: 728.3

Main Landmarks:

- {'name': 'Marina Bay Sands', 'writeup': 'An iconic integrated resort known for its rooftop infinity pool and striking architecture.'}
- {'name': 'Gardens by the Bay', 'writeup': 'A futuristic park featuring Supertree structures and diverse plant species.'}
- {'name': 'Sentosa Island', 'writeup': 'A popular resort island with beaches, theme parks, and entertainment attractions.'}
- {'name': 'Merlion Park', 'writeup': 'Home to the famous Merlion statue, a symbol of Singapore's origins as a fishing village.'}
- {'name': 'Singapore Botanic Gardens', 'writeup': 'A UNESCO World Heritage site known for its tropical flora and the National Orchid Garden.'}

Head of State / Government:

President Tharman Shanmugaratnam

Main Cultural Events:

- {'name': 'Chinese New Year', 'writeup': 'A major festival celebrated with lion dances, family reunions, and vibrant street markets.'}
- {'name': 'Hari Raya Puasa', 'writeup': 'Marks the end of Ramadan, celebrated with feasts and prayers among the Malay Muslim community.'}
- {'name': 'Deepavali', 'writeup': 'The Hindu festival of lights, celebrated with colorful decorations and cultural performances.'}
- {'name': 'Singapore National Day', 'writeup': 'Celebrated on August 9th with parades, fireworks, and patriotic events.'}
- {'name': 'Thaipusam', 'writeup': 'A Hindu festival involving a ceremonial procession and acts of devotion.'}

Food & Cuisine:

Singaporean cuisine is a vibrant blend of Malay, Chinese, Indian, and Western influences, famous for dishes like Hainanese chicken rice, chili crab, laksa, and satay, reflecting its multicultural heritage.

Brief History:

Singapore was a British trading post established in 1819, later occupied by Japan during World War II. It gained independence in 1965 and rapidly developed into a global financial hub with a strong economy and diverse population.

Important People:

- Lee Kuan Yew - Founding Prime Minister and architect of modern Singapore
- Goh Chok Tong - Second Prime Minister
- Halima Yacob - First female President
- Tharman Shanmugaratnam - Current President
- S. R. Nathan - Former President

Current Conflicts:

Singapore maintains a stable political environment with no significant internal or external conflicts.

Youtube Links:

- Discover Singapore: A City of Innovation and Culture
- Top 10 Things to Do in Singapore
- Singapore Travel Guide 2024
- The History of Singapore Explained
- Singapore Food Tour: Best Local Dishes