

South Sudan

Continent: Africa

Languages Spoken: English (official), Dinka, Nuer, Zande, Shilluk, Bari

Population: 11,000,000

Currency: South Sudanese Pound (SSP)

Area: 619,745

Main Landmarks:

- {'name': 'Boma National Park', 'writeup': 'One of the largest national parks in Africa, known for its diverse wildlife and seasonal migration of antelopes.'}
- {'name': 'Nimule National Park', 'writeup': 'Located near the border with Uganda, it features savannah landscapes and a variety of wildlife including elephants and lions.'}
- {'name': 'Juba Nile Bridge', 'writeup': 'A key infrastructure landmark in the capital city, connecting different parts of Juba across the White Nile.'}

Head of State / Government:

Salva Kiir Mayardit (President)

Main Cultural Events:

- {'name': 'South Sudan Independence Day', 'writeup': "Celebrated on July 9th, marking the country's independence from Sudan in 2011."}
- {'name': 'Traditional Dance Festivals', 'writeup': 'Various ethnic groups celebrate with traditional dances and music, showcasing their cultural heritage.'}

Food & Cuisine:

South Sudanese cuisine features staples like sorghum, millet, and maize, often served with stews made from meat, fish, and vegetables. Popular dishes include kisra (a type of bread) and asida (a porridge).

Brief History:

South Sudan gained independence from Sudan in 2011 after decades of civil war. It is the world's youngest country but has faced ongoing internal conflicts and challenges in nation-building.

Important People:

- Salva Kiir Mayardit - First President of South Sudan
- Riek Machar - Vice President and key political figure
- John Garang (deceased) - Leader of the Sudan People's Liberation Army and a pivotal figure in the independence movement

Current Conflicts:

Internal ethnic and political conflicts persist, including clashes between government forces and opposition groups, impacting stability and humanitarian conditions.

Youtube Links:

- South Sudan: The World's Newest Country Explained
- Life in Juba, South Sudan's Capital
- South Sudan Civil War: Causes and Consequences
- Wildlife and Nature in South Sudan's National Parks
- South Sudan Independence Day Celebrations